FEE AUDITOR'S FINAL REPORT REGARDING
FEE APPLICATION OF WALLACE, KING, MARRARO & BRANSON, PLLC
FOR THE EIGHTH INTERIM PERIOD

This is the final report of Warren H. Smith & Associates, P.C. ("Smith"), acting in its capacity as fee auditor in the above-captioned bankruptcy proceedings, regarding the Eighth Interim Fee Application of Wallace, King Marraro & Branson, PLLC (the "Application").

BACKGROUND

1. Wallace, King, Marraro & Branson, PLLC ("Wallace King") was retained as special litigation and environmental counsel to the Debtor. In the Application, Wallace King seeks approval of fees totaling $609,371.10¹ and costs totaling $196,098.40 for its services from January 1, 2003, through March 31, 2003.

2. In conducting this audit and reaching the conclusions and recommendations contained herein, we reviewed in detail the Application in its entirety, including each of the time entries included in the exhibits to the Application, for compliance with 11 U.S.C. § 330, Local Rule 2016-2 of the Local Rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware, Amended ¹Although the Application requests $609,371.10 in fees for this period, this amount reflects a 40% reduction, $397,183.40, for time spent with regard to the Honeywell litigation. Notwithstanding this discount, the actual amount of fees reviewed is $1,006,554.50.

Effective February 1, 2001, and the United States Trustee Guidelines for Reviewing Applications for Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses Filed Under 11 U.S.C. 330, Issued January 30, 1996, (the "Guidelines"), as well as for consistency with precedent established in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware, the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, and the Third Circuit Court of Appeals. We served on Wallace King an initial report based on our review, and received a response from Wallace King, portions of which response are quoted herein.

DISCUSSION

General Issues

3. In our initial report, we noted that professionals TSM, BJB and CHM often did not include sufficient detail in their time entries. Rule 2016-2(d) of the Delaware Local Rules states “activity descriptions . . . shall be sufficiently detailed to allow the Court to determine whether all the time, or any portion thereof, is actual, reasonable, and necessary . . .” This issue has been raised in previous reports, and we have advised certain professionals to provide more detailed time entries in the future. We again asked that Wallace King continue to advise its professionals regarding this matter. Wallace King responded as follows:

Consistent with our duties to protect our work product and trial strategy, we have attempted to provide detail sufficient for the Court and the Auditor to assess tasks, and the reasonableness of our professional services. We are aware that Honeywell reads our fee applications and therefore we have been careful not to disclose the very detail of our trial preparation work such that Honeywell can assess our strategy or our work-product. We have attempted to strike a balance between these two objectives. We are willing to answer any questions or provide additional detail by telephone to the Fee Auditor concerning the invoices.

We appreciate the response.

4. We further noted that WFH often tended to lump time entries. Local Rule 2016-2(d)(vii) requires “[a]ctivity descriptions shall not be lumped – each activity shall have a separate description and a time allotment.” We asked Wallace King to advise this professional to avoid such lumped time entries in the future. Wallace King’s response is provided below.

We have instructed all timekeepers not to lump time entries and have made a diligent effort to comply with the Local Rule. We will continue to strive to ensure compliance.

We appreciate the response.

5. In our initial report, we noted that the Application has a summary of expenses but fails to provide any details. Paragraph II. E. of the Guidelines provides that “[f]actors relevant to a determination that the expense is proper include the following: . . .3. Whether applicant has provided a detailed itemization of all expenses including the date incurred, description of expense (e.g., type of travel, type of fare, rate, destination), . . .”. We asked Wallace King to provide detailed expense entries with regard to those expenses for which the firm wished to be reimbursed. The details should include the name of the person incurring each expense, the class of fare for airfares, the number of nights per hotel stay, the number of days per car rental, the number of meals per meal expense, the reason for each trip and any other information that may be necessary and useful in explaining the expense. Wallace King responded as follows:

See Wallace King Marraro & Branson, PLLC Exhibit 1 (provided here as Response Exhibit 1) attached hereto. Wallace King must apologize for an overcharge for overtime meals and transportation in the amount of $655.84 for meals and $2,350.45 for transportation. This overcharge was the result of Wallace King changing its billing software as of January 1, 2003. In the process of making entries to the new software, we inadvertently brought into January 2003 expenses for overtime meals and transportation that had already been billed in December 2002. The fee auditor is requested to deduct $3,006.29 from the Wallace King payment for this 8th quarterly application and again we apologize for any problems this may cause.

We appreciate the response and we accept the voluntary reduction of $3,006.29 for overtime meals and transportation. After reviewing Response Exhibit 1, we believe a number of meal expenses associated with travel and trial were excessive. We suggest reasonable ceilings of $15.00 per person for breakfast, $25.00 for lunch and $35.00 for dinner. The entries which exceed those ceilings total $2,614.23 and are provided as Exhibit A. Thus, coupled with the voluntary reduction ($3,006.29 plus $2,614.23), we recommend a total reduction of $5,620.52 in expenses.

Specific Time and Expense Entries

6. In our initial report, we noted that between January 9 and February 6, 2003, TSM, MM and BJB spent a total of 1,280.10 hours for $172,813.50 assisting with trial preparation and attendance at trial. (See Exhibit B) This number is staggering. By our calculations, each paralegal billed an average of 17.30 hours per day in January and 20.43 hours per day in February. A number of days showed 22.00 and 23.00 hours billed individually, considerably more hours than the attorneys trying the case. We asked Wallace King to review the time records comprising Exhibit B and explain how it was possible to achieve the number of hours indicated. Wallace King responded as follows:

This was a massive litigation with very significant repercussions for the Grace Defendant's. The trial in this case involved the Grace Defendant's demand for injunctive relief costing $500 million dollars and a damage claim of $10 million dollars all against Honeywell. Additionally, the Grace Defendants were defending against both Plaintiff ICO's claim against the Grace Defendants for the costly injunctive relief and Honeywell's cross-claim for the injunctive relief and for $3.5 million dollars in cost recovery. There was trial testimony from 22 experts and over 5,000 exhibits were at issue at trial. The Grace Defendant's not only prevailed on all of their claims but also defeated Plaintiff's and Honeywell's claims and were also awarded their attorney's fees and costs on their claim for injunctive relief as well.

In a large complex case such as this matter, work proceeds over a twenty-four hour day. Paralegals attend trial during the day assisting the attorneys with exhibits and other needs and then work the evening supporting the attorneys' needs in witness preparation for the next trial day including working with demonstrative exhibits and preparing summaries of the prior days testimony from daily transcripts. Once the final witness preparation outlines for direct or cross examination is prepared by the attorneys at the conclusion of the witness preparation sessions, the paralegals then need to prepare exhibit books for the attorneys, the court and adversaries. In this matter the exhibit books were lengthy and witness preparation sessions concluded generally after mid-night. The paralegals then had a substantial task that begun well after mid-night on trial days. Paralegals were also responsible for ensuring that all exhibits, demonstratives, bench memos and trial books were assembled and organized for the trial day. This was a tremendous amount of work and spread over three persons only was a very difficult and exhausting experience. I have reviewed the entries on Exhibit A and from my observations at trial conclude that the paralegal time is reasonable and necessary to the result achieved in the case. For example, much of the time on Exhibit A relates to organizing the War Room and loading more than 5,000 exhibits onto Summation and Trial Director. A specific example is TSM 1/19 and 1/20 entry where Miss Manago is working with over a thousand cost exhibits so that the attorneys can draft a stipulation on damages that shortened the trial by at least three weeks.

We accept this explanation and thus have no objection to these fees.

7. We noted that in January and February, 2003, five professionals attended trial. The total time spent including preparation time was 680.10 hours for $188,585.50. (See Exhibit C) Paragraph II.D.5. of the Guidelines states “. . . [i]f more than one professional from the applicant firm attends a hearing or conference, the applicant should explain the need for multiple attendees.” While we realize that a trial is a circumstance that demands the presence of more than one firm professional, we nonetheless feel compelled to question the necessity of five firm professionals attending. We asked Wallace King to explain the necessity of attendance and the specific role of each attending professional or paraprofessional. Wallace King’s response is provided below.

This was a massive litigation with very significant repercussions for the Grace Defendant’s. The trial in this case involved the Grace Defendant’s demand for injunctive relief costing $500 million dollars and a damage claim of $10 million dollars all against Honeywell. Additionally, the Grace Defendants were defending against both Plaintiff ICO’s claim against the Grace Defendants for the costly injunctive relief and Honeywell’s cross-claim for the injunctive relief and for $3.5

million dollars in cost recovery. There was trial testimony from 22 experts and over 5,000 exhibits were at issue at trial. The Grace Defendant's not only prevailed on all of their claims but also defeated Plaintiff's and Honeywell's claims and were also awarded their attorney's fees and costs on their claim for injunctive relief as well. Two attorneys and three paralegals attended the trial. The responsibilities of each person listed in Appendix B is described as follows:

Christopher Marraro – Trial Counsel - Participated in all aspects of the trial, responsible for strategic and tactical decisions, preparation of witnesses and examination of witnesses.

William Hughes – Attorney - Assisted at trial with witness preparation and conducted needed legal research on evidentiary and other legal issues.

Tanya Manago – Chief trial paralegal – Managed paralegal staff during trial, directed and prepared witness notebooks for the Court, ran Summation data base in the courtroom organized exhibits for attorneys at trial.

Barbara Banks – paralegal - Prepared witness notebooks at war room for upcoming witnesses. Summation research at war room to prepare for cross-examination and upcoming witnesses, responsible for obtaining exhibits needed for witness preparation during evenings after trial day. Interface with trial lawyers regarding needed documents from DC office during trial. Prepared summaries of daily transcripts for use by attorneys.

Keith Kaider – data management system analyst – Set up audio/visual and data management trial systems for use in the courtroom. Set up and provided all technical guidance for Trial Director. Mr. Kaider was at trial for a limited period only to assure that all technical systems were working smoothly. Upon completing that task, he returned to the DC office where he provided back up technical support for the data management system used at trial.

We accept this explanation and thus have no objection to these fees.

8. In our initial report, we noted that in February and March, 2003, four paralegals spent a total of 110.60 hours for $14,213.50 on packing, unpacking and organizing trial materials after the trial. (See Exhibit D) Paragraph, I.E. of the Guidelines states, “. . . [i]n evaluating fees for professional services, it is relevant to consider . . . whether services were performed within a reasonable time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;. . .” We asked Wallace King to explain why these tasks required so many people and so much time to complete. Wallace King responded as follows:

This time was required as the trial team had to move exhibits, pleading files, summary judgment files, legal memo files, deposition and deposition exhibit files, computers, supplies to New Jersey and back to DC. The “war room” (hotel suite and two adjoining rooms) functioned as a mini-law firm and contained thousands of documents and work product collected over the prior 8 years.

We accept this explanation and have no objection to these fees.

9. We further noted two instances in January, 2003, in which the time entry totals do not match the parenthetical entries. The difference is 2.9 hours and $391.50. The entries are provided below.

On January 23, 2003, MM has a time entry listed as 21.00 hours for a total of $2,835.00. The parenthetical entries only total 19.00 hours for a total of $2,565.00. The difference is $270.00.

01/23/03	MM	Continue to work from war room in NJ re researching and preparing various trial binders for attorney and expert use (6.8); travel to and from U. S. District Court in Newark dropping off and picking up experts and trial team as well as dropping off various documents to be used at trial (3.9); conferences with trial attorneys re various tasks to be completed in preparation for trial (.7); travel to and from various copy centers re preparing trial exhibits (4.9); travel to and from Newark International Airport re dropping off and picking up experts (1.3); review and prepare binders re daily trial transcripts for attorney and experts use (1.4).	21.00
----------	----	--	-------

On January 30, 2003, MM has a time entry listed as 16.70 hours for a total of $2,254.50. The parenthetical entries only total 15.80 hours for $2,133.00. The difference is $121.50.

01/30/03	MM	Continue to work from war room in NJ re completing research projects and gathering various case documents for trial binders to be used by attorneys and experts (3.6); travel to and from U. S. District Court in Newark re dropping off and picking up experts and trial team as well s dropping off various documents to be used at trial (3.9); travel to and from various copy centers in NJ re preparing trial exhibits	16.70
----------	----	--	-------

(5.1); conferences with trial attorneys re various tasks to be completed in preparation for trial (.4); travel to and from Newark International Airport re dropping off experts and other trial team members (.9); travel to Washington (2.2 hrs.; note: travel time billed at 50%; 10% here or 1.9 and 40% at end of statement).

We asked Wallace King to examine the entries to be sure they represent inadvertent overcharges.

Wallace King responded as follows:

The calculations the Fee Auditor came up with are correct. The time billed was an inadvertent overcharge and should be deducted from the payment.

We appreciate the response and thus recommend a reduction of $391.50 in fees.

CONCLUSION

10. Thus, we recommend approval of fees totaling $608,979.60 ($609,371.10 minus $391.50) and costs totaling $190,477.88 ($196,098.40 minus $5,620.52) for Wallace King's services from January 1, 2003, through March 31, 2003.
